

Wed. April 7 - 3 pm
Assembly Parlor, State Capitol
A workshop

the Science of WORKPLACE BULLYING
the rationale for AB 894

Gary Namie, PhD

Director, WBI

Co-author, The Bully At Work

- Bullying Defined, sub-lethal, non-physical interpersonal violence
- U.S. prevalence statistics
- Relationships to discrimination, harassment, domestic violence
- Harmful impact on people: Health, Social Support, Economics Findings from occupational health, epidemiology, social sciences, clinical psychology, and management sciences research
- Costs to employers
- Sustaining factors, why bullying happens despite the consequences
- The failure of voluntary employer controls
- What HB 894 does and does not do
- The approach taken by other industrialized nations
- Testimonials from bullied individuals

Questions? Contact Rep. Kelda Roys, 266-5340

WORKPLACE
BULLYING
INSTITUTE

workplacebullying.org

HEALTHY WORKPLACE Bill

healthyworkplacebill.org

Freedom
From Workplace Bullies
Week Oct 17-23, 2010